Access Loan Policy

Funds for student loans are made available by contributions from alumni and friends of the University. An example of the generosity of Truman's alumni is a significant gift given by James and Helen Heffern to provide financial assistance in the form of student loans. Dr. James Heffern received a B.S. from Truman in 1926 and a D.D.S. in 1932 from the University of Missouri-Kansas City. Helen Heffern received her B.S. from the University of Kansas, followed by her M.A. from Columbia University in New York. Dr. and Mrs. Heffern were truly dedicated to education-teaching in Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska, Illinois and North Carolina. Gifts from alumni and friends, like the Hefferns, enable many students to obtain loans in order to further their education.

All loans are approved by the Truman State University Financial Aid Loans Committee. The Committee reserves the right to waive certain terms and conditions or add requirements depending on the circumstances. Applications are available in the Financial Aid Office, McClain 103.

General Eligibility

Loans will be available to students:

- A.) Who are currently enrolled at Truman State University on a full-time basis;
- B.) Who have completed at least twelve credit hours of coursework at the University;
- C.) Who demonstrate the ability or potential to repay the loan on a timely basis;
- D.) Who agree to treat such loans as debts to the University and to accept the same sanctions and penalties as imposed by the University for delinquent student accounts.

The maximum outstanding amount of Foundation loan funds (i.e. Short-Term, Long-Term, Cultural, Access, etc.) any one student receives should not exceed $12,000 at any given time.

A limited number of Access Loans in amounts up to $5,000 per year ($12,000 total) are available to those students who are in good academic standing and demonstrate need-based federal aid eligibility.
